WELCOME TO BEDFORD PARK AT TRADITION HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION

As you know, all property owners in Bedford Park at Tradition are members of our Homeowners Association. Upon moving into any regulated community, residents are usually at a loss as to how their new HOA functions. The following information is not meant to serve as a substitute for the reading and reviewing of our governing documents, but simply as an overview and introduction to some of the specific documents under which we operate.

Bedford Park at Tradition is a Florida corporation under Florida Statute 720. The Association is basically governed by four sets of documents, which we have presented here in declining order of authority.

Florida Statute 720 gives the basic guidelines under which every HOA must operate. They are the minimum standards required. There may be no deviation from these guidelines.

Our Declaration of Covenants defines not only what Florida State mandates but includes those issues that are specific to our community. It delineates the purpose and intent of the developer, responsibilities of the Association in general, its Board of Directors, and its membership. It defines the community's administration, architectural standards, property rights, enforcement, and the means by which we may amend these Covenants.

Our Articles of Incorporation not only defines our Association as a Not-For-Profit Florida Corporation under Florida Statute 720, but declares its purpose, powers, membership, configuration of the Board of Directors, and the manner in which we may amend these Articles.

Our Bylaws indicate the manner in which our Association is to operate in regards to membership, meetings, quorums, voting, elections, Board powers and duties, accounting, and once again, the manner in which we may amend these Bylaws.

Like all corporations, there are Officers and Directors in place to help facilitate the purpose of our Association. We currently have a five (5) member Board of Directors that meet once a month. However, since our Board of Directors is made up of volunteer residents, the day-to-day handling of Association affairs is managed by our very capable management company, Harbor Management. Their experienced staff, headed by our personal Property Manager, is prepared to answer questions, assist with financial set up, deal with complaints, field emergency after-hour problems, and generally assist the Board of Directors and our membership so that Association affairs can be handled in a professional and efficient manner. Please feel free to contact the Harbor Management office either by telephone at or 561-935-9366 by e-mail at admin@harborfla.com.

BEDFORD PARK RULES AND REGULATIONS

The purpose of these rules is not to anticipate all acceptable and unacceptable behavior in advance, or to eliminate all improvements or activities that fall outside of "the norm".
